The following paper concentrates on the specific word-formation process clipping . To be able to give an adequate insight into this field of morphology, certain important aspects will be examined, such as the rules of this word-formation process, the usage of clippings in today s language and the development of this linguistic phenomenon over the past few decades.During the preparation for this paper, I became curious about how we use clippings in everyday language and which form, the original or the clipped word, is used more often. Do we say more often mathematics or math Is the more common term advertisement or ad Even more interesting is to find out in which context which form is used more often. Are clippings still assumed as more colloquial or could...
