Atria Books, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 229 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Now in paperback: gold medal-winning Olympic speed skater Apolo Ohno shares the inspiring personal story behind his enduring success as an elite athlete and reveals the universal life lessons he has learned through his training and competition. Zero regrets. It s a philosophy not just about sport but about life. School, business, academics, love--anything and everything. It s complicated and yet not. You have to figure out who it is you want to be. Not what you want to be-- who. There has to be a vision, a dream, a plan. Then you chase that with everything you ve got. After making a name for himself as a promising young speed skater, his career was almost over before it began when his lack of preparation caused him to finish last at the U.S. Olympic trials in 1998. A life-changing week of solitary soul-searching at the age of fifteen led him to recommit himself to his training, and at the 1999 world junior championships he won first place overall--one...
