Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: . . . a report giving the results of the years work, and in accordance with this plan a report covering the first six months of the operation of the system was prepared at the beginning of 1905 and issued early in the year (Bulletin No. 204). This report, which was prepared by Messrs. Fuller, Lines, and Veatch, contains discussions of the importance of well records and an account of the organization of the work of collecting records and samples, a full description of the methods of work, a list of the persons cooperating in furnishing samples or records, a summary of wells reported, and the results and detailed records of a considerable number of wells. From its beginning, on July 1, to September 15 the work of the sample system was carried on by Mr. Veatch, assisted by Mr. E. F. Lines. On Mr. Veatch's voluntarily relinquishing the work to take up more strictly scientific lines of investigation the routine work devolved upon Mr. Lines, who continued to conduct it until he was transferred to the geologic branch on April 1, when the work was placed in charge of Mr. Samuel Sanford. During the fiscal year two field trips were made--the first, in July, 1904, by Mr. Lines to arrange with State geologists of certain central States for cooperation in the collection of records, and the second by Mr. Sanford to the South Atlantic States for the purpose of arranging with drillers for the saving of samples. REPORTS....
