McGraw-Hill. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.8in. x 1.1in.What better opportunity than now to strengthen your business and come out of the recession even stronger David Rhodes and Daniel Stelter provide an easy-to-understand perspective on the current economic environment, and some practical strategies to help readers come out ahead. A timely read for all who care about their business. Paul Polman, CEO, Unilever This is the most comprehensive assessment of the global economy that Ive seen and is a must-read for any business, economic, or governmental-related leader. Jeff M. Fettig, Chairman and CEO, Whirlpool Corporation A fascinating account of the causal factors of the meltdown and what we can do to avoid repetition. Sanjay Khosla, Executive Vice President and President, International for Kraft Foods This book combines brilliant analysis and strategic insight with a clear message: Companies that want to play a role in tomorrows markets must act immediately. Theres no place for complacency. The opportunities in the post-crisis world are good--and better than many might think. Dr. Jrgen Hambrecht, CEO, BASF The lessons from companies that came out winners during past recessions are invaluable in the current context. Rhodes and Stelter strike a welcome note of optimism in todays tough times by showing that companies can do a lot to thrive when the global economy is struggling. Dr. Dieter Zetsche, CEO, Daimler There are great lessons for todays chief executives: well-managed companies can prosper in the downturn and accelerate faster than their competitors in the upturn. Rhodes and Stelter have dug deep into history to vividly show how companies can do it. Dr. Martin C. Halusa, CEO, Apax Partners Worldwide LLP From the worlds leading business strategy consultancy comes this essential guide to prospering in the aftermath of what is being called the Great...
