I Was loitering over my breakfast the next morning, and thinking of the last night s scene, when Lord Vincent was announced. How fares the gallant Pelham? said he, as he entered the room. Why, to say the truth, I replied, I am rather under the influence of blue devils this morning, and your visit is like a sunbsam in November. A bright thought, said Vincent, and I shall make you a very pretty little poet soon; publish you in a neat octavo, and dedicate you to Lady D e. Pray, by the by, have you ever read her plays? You know they were only privately printed? No, said I (for in good truth, had his lordship interrogated me touching any other literary production, I should have esteemed it a part of my present...
