The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser is a book about Connie and Jim Houser s passion for art and each other as well as for living and family. It is a dialogue about their adventures in pursuing those loves and achieving recognition for their accomplishments. There is a profound degree of suchness or Zen quality in Jim Houser s paintings as well as a lyricism not unlike the clear concise resonance of Robert Frost s shorter verse. Those essentials are shown in the almost forty paintings photographed for The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser. The imagined and inventive device and use of letters in The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser swiftly conveys the actual events in Jim and Connie Houser s lives. The creative partners are portrayed in a rapidly moving dialogue that involves the reader in artist s competitions, art gallery shows, foreign and domestic travel, family life, and an understanding of the profession of producing a fine work of art in modern times. The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser explains that a fine work of art is very different from the remainder of artistic endeavor. Fine art engages the viewer in a visual dialogue that distinguishes it and bonds the viewer in love or hate but never mediocrity. Not a run of the mill coffee table book, The Letters: Portrait of an Artist, Jim Houser is a charming and accurate account of the modern day artist s life while creating works of art and bringing them to the public s attention. The story encompasses the tragedies and the successes in the Houser s lives and their interaction...
