Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a tongue-in-cheek informational book on how to create and publish your first eBook. Follow Jack along the creative process, from idea creation to work flow to proof-reading to making a cover and publishing your book. Will it help you sell a million copies? Probably not. But then again, buying a lottery ticket does not mean you'll win a million dollars either! What you will win here is humor and some good publishing advice. You're bound to laugh as Jack humorously teaches you the tools of the trade, and you will learn a set of reliable skills from his lessons on writer's craft, how to market your book effectively, building a platform (following) before you release your first edition, and using literary devices to make your literature more compelling, all while sharing a graphic fairy tale story along the way. So, if you are an aspiring writer, jump on board Jack's journey through these unchartered waters and publish YOUR first book!.
