Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a book about three sons of The South, President Andrew Jackson, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and President Jefferson Davis, who fought to protect and preserve what President George Washington called the very foundation upon which our Republic was built: the Holy Bible and the Constitution. These three historic figures are also America s sons, and they personify the concept of American Exceptionalism! The South is distinguished from virtually every other region of our great country. It is often referred to as the Bible Belt, because of its deep Christian roots and family values. From a military and patriotic perspective, The South, per capita, has more American war heroes and Congressional Medal of Honor winners than any other region in the country. And chivalry continues to live in The South! It is a blessed land of faith, family, honor, tradition, and hope. But it did not become this way by mere chance. Our forefathers established this special region of America, and President Andrew Jackson, General Robert E. Lee, and President Jefferson Davis must certainly be counted amongst those pivotal greats that made it so. They changed the course of American history for the better . and this book tells you why in their own words! It is a study in the history of the Republic, the events that led to a war on our soil, and a lesson on the consequences of an over-reaching federal government. Even today, we see the seeds of war again being sown. We see a federal government unconstitutionally expanding its powers and dictating laws that are reserved to the exclusive jurisdiction of the states and we the people. I...
